Dognapping.
10/17/2006

After a hard day running through the sand, chasing seagulls or pestering Suzy the poodle, your dog probably goes to his bed for a good, solid dognap. Zzzz.

If it's time to refresh Rover's doggy digs, check out these three snugglers for inspiration.

1 - Haute Pooch makes Hooded Dog Beds that look like little cocoons, perfect for chilly pups and their Saigon Day bed will make any glam dog wag.

2 - Browsers' beds come in all shapes, sizes and looks. Choose from the little Buttercups to the stately Double Donut. We love their new Bistro collection.

3 - Big city dogs will love sleeping in the oh-so-tacky but terrific, New York City Taxi plush bed, available online at barkslope.com

doggy q & a doggy forecast

Johann, aka Jajo

1) How do you like to unwind?

Roll around on my back and make snorting noises, then nap on my Mom's bed.

2) What's the weirdest thing you've ever eaten?

A mouse, eek!

3) Who do you most admire and why?

My Mom, she rescued me!

4) Describe your ultimate day.

Running in an agility trial, getting first place, and then going home for a nice raw bone, a short nap, and a good chase with my sister Gracie in the yard.

5) What's your motto for life?

It's a perfect day!

6) Describe your personal fashion sense.

Sporty.

7) What's your beauty secret?

Plenty of exercise, whole foods, water and an occasional bath in Buddy Wash.

Rover and Rupert will make fun of your furry tail today but don't take it personally. You're just very bushy.
